

Season 2

The Old People Are Revolting

By Devon Williamson

Directed by Emma Barber

The senior residents of the Sunshine Lifestyle Village have had enough ... they're revolting! Once the 'makers and shakers' of their community, the residents are now largely ignored, and relegated to the sidelines of life. The world is about to find out how dangerous retired lawyers, car salesmen, hairdressers and farmers can be! Using the United Nations charter on the rights of self determination the residents decide to create their own independent Kingdom, appoint a monarch and teach the wider community a lesson. The resulting chaos and shenanigans draws the attention of the international media and upsets the nation's balance of power.

However not everything goes to plan, as a last minute scandal threatens to ruin the whole affair. Elizabeth Coleman's wonderful characters bring this seriously funny play to life. Never far from reality, it exposes the insanity that can be created as the wedding juggernaut threatens to swerve out of control. Marriage may be a wonderful thing, but after a night like this, well, could it really be worth it?
